The screenshot displays the Oxford Competition Law website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'About', 'Subscriber Services', 'Guided Tour', 'FAQs', 'Help', 'Contact Us', and a 'Personal Profile' section with 'Sign in' or 'Create' options. A 'See All Online Law Products' link is also present. Below the navigation bar, the main header features the 'Oxford Competition Law' logo and a search bar with a magnifying glass icon. A blue callout box with a white border and a pointer to the search bar contains the text 'Do Simple search'. Below the search bar is a horizontal menu with tabs for 'Browse all', 'Content type', 'Subject', and three author-specific sections: 'Bellamy & Child', 'Faull & Nikpay', and 'Whish & Bailey'. To the right of these tabs are 'My Content (0)' and 'My Searches (0)'. The main content area is divided into three columns of categories: 'Case reports' (Domestic court decisions, NCA decisions, European court cases), 'Commentary and analysis' (Book content), and 'International instruments and materials' (Treaties, Supporting instruments). Below these are 'European instruments and materials' (EU directives, EU regulations, EU decisions, European Commission recommendations, European Commission notices, European Commission guidelines) and 'Other instruments and materials' (Official publications). The bottom section includes a 'Sign in' button, a 'Tweets by @OUPLaw' section with a tweet from OUP Law congratulating @JillHasday, and a 'Connect with us' section with social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and WordPress, and a 'Sign up to our newsletter' link. A 'COMPETITION NEWS' section is also visible at the bottom right.
