Oxford Quick References: Search options

The screenshot shows the Oxford Reference website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'About', 'News', 'Subscriber Services', 'Contact Us', 'Help', and 'For Authors'. Below this is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon. A blue callout box points to the search bar with the text 'Do Simple Search'. The main content area is divided into two columns: 'Subject' and 'Reference Type'. The 'Subject' column lists categories such as Archaeology, Art & Architecture, Bilingual dictionaries, Classical studies, Encyclopedias, and English Dictionaries and Thesauri. The 'Reference Type' column lists categories such as History, Language reference, Law, Linguistics, Literature, and Media studies. Below these columns are sections for 'EXPLORING BY SUBJECT' and 'FEATURED BLOG POST'. The 'EXPLORING BY SUBJECT' section features a grid of images representing various disciplines. The 'FEATURED BLOG POST' section is titled 'Words are Chameleons: The Languages of Law' and includes a brief introduction to the article.
